for High Performance Teams

Workshop outline

The day is designed to challenge delegates to look at fresh ways of analysing issues and developing solutions using the power of creativity. This will be achieved by short inputs and discussions followed by practical exercises to demonstrate the principles. Some exercises will involve work related topics relevant to all participants but the majority will be non-work based and fun. A comprehensive manual is also provided.

Who should attend

Individuals or teams who want to understand how to harness the power of innovation and creativity in solving business issues.

Objectives

For participants to:

- understand the use of creativity in problem solving
- learn how to release and capture creative ideas
- learn creativity tools and techniques
